

Introducing a new  video series

MORE THAN KUMBAYA

Looking for a resource for your small group?

More than Kumbaya is a video series which features conversations with local Baton Rouge leaders. Each video is 15--30 minutes, allowing time for extended conversation among your small group. Watch the videos in any sequence.

More than Kumbaya invites us to: LISTEN - REFLECT - ACT. Each video concludes with questions to guide your conversation.

- Police Reform: Baton Rouge Police Chief Murphy Paul
- The Talk: Coach Dawson Odums, Southern University

- Dear White Church: Rev. Herman Kelly, Bethel AME Church
- Investing in the Dis-invested: Chris Tyson, Build Baton Rouge

- History and Racism: Dr. Charles Vincent, Southern University
- Mentoring: Michael Adams, 100 Black Men-Baton Rouge

- Race & the American Dream: Rev. Mark Ellis, United Christian Faith Ministries
- Raising Black Sons: Holy Grill Coordinator Tonia Causey & daughter Ashley Bennett

- Social Justice: Eugene Collins, NAACP-Baton Rouge
- Health Equity: Alma Stewart, Louisiana Center for Health Equity

Go to www.ifedgbr.com/news/more-than-kumbaya

