

INSTRUCTIONS

All sections of the form should be completed at the financial institution chosen for direct deposit.

Print in ink or type all entries except signatures. This form should not be altered in any way.

For the direct deposit of regular benefits, use Direct Deposit of Benefits (Form 15D) at www.TRSL.org.

SECTION 1 — Benefit recipient information

This section should be completed and signed by the person who receives the benefit. If your mailing address has changed, notify TRSL by putting the new address in this section and checking the box, "Check here if address change."

If this is a new direct deposit set-up, a change to a new bank, or a change of your account number with the same bank, check the applicable box. NOTE: Bank officials are not required to sign Section 3 if the form is being submitted to report a change of your account number with the same bank.

SECTION 2 — Joint signer information

Not required if spouse is the joint signer. Other joint signers must be listed. For more than one joint signer, complete Addendum to Direct Deposit of Benefits—Nonspousal Joint Signer(s) (Form 15JS) identifying each joint signer.

SECTION 3 — Financial institution agreement

This section should be completed by bank officials. Bank officials must verify all bank account information for accuracy. They must also sign and date the agreement. (Bank teller/receptionist signatures are not acceptable.)

When are benefits posted?

- » With direct deposit, benefit payments are made available for deposit into your checking or savings account on the 15th day of the month. If the 15th falls on a weekend or holiday (non-banking days for the Federal Reserve Bank), the direct deposit will be made available for your financial institution to post to your account on the next business day. Please contact your financial institution to find out when they will make your funds available to you.

Direct deposit forms received by the last day of the previous month will be processed for the current month.

EXAMPLE: A DROP or ILSB withdrawal for the month of May would be sent electronically if the request was received by April 30.

TRSL cannot guarantee that direct deposit requests received on or after the first of the month can be processed for the current month. However, you should check with your bank on the 15th and not assume that the request could not be processed on time.

How do I get my benefit payment stubs?

- » TRSL mails direct deposit payment stubs at the establishment of direct deposit, each December, and when the net benefit changes. If you have any questions about direct deposit of DROP or ILSB withdrawals, contact TRSL at 225-925-6446 or toll free at 1-877-275-8775.
- » You can also view your monthly pay stubs online through Member Access at www.TRSL.org.
