INSTRUCTIONS

Use this form if you wish to authorize a trusted person to manage your TRSL affairs on your behalf. To establish a new power of attorney, complete all three sections. Print in ink or type all entries except signatures. You, the principal, must sign section 2 in ink before a Notary Public. Your agent must sign section 3 in ink before a Notary Public.

If you wish to submit an existing power of attorney instead, TRSL must receive either an original, or a true copy, or a certified copy of the existing power of attorney. In this case, complete sections 1 and 3, leaving section 2 blank. Your agent must sign section 3 in ink before a Notary Public.

It is advisable to verify commission of your Notary Public before signing the forms.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if I want to appoint more than one agent?

If you want to appoint more than one agent, separate forms must be submitted for each agent. In this case, each agent will be authorized to act independently from other agents.

May I sign documents and conduct TRSL business myself if I have appointed an agent?

You may sign TRSL documents yourself even after appointing an agent.

May I revoke a power of attorney?

You may revoke a power of attorney in writing. However, a new power of attorney does not automatically revoke previous ones.
