

Print in ink or type all entries except signatures. All applicants must complete Section 1 and 3. All sections of the form should be completed at the financial institution chosen for direct deposit. This form should not be altered in any way. Depending on your election, you will also need to complete Section 2 (Joint Signer Information).

This form should be used for all TRSL benefits except for DROP or ILSB account withdrawals. To receive DROP or ILSB account withdrawals via direct deposit, you will need to complete a Direct Deposit of DROP or ILSB Account Withdrawals (Form 11R).

Section 1 — Benefit recipient Information

Should be completed by the person who receives the benefit. If your mailing address has changed, notify TRSL by putting the new address in this section and checking the box, "Check here if address change."

If this is a new direct deposit setup, a change to a new bank, or a change of your account number with the same bank, check the applicable box. Bank officials are not required to sign Section 3 if the form is being submitted to report a change of your account number with the same bank. Section 1 must be signed by the benefit recipient.

Section 2 — Joint signer information

Not required if spouse is the joint signer. Other joint signers must be listed. For more than one joint signer, complete TRSL's Addendum to Direct Deposit of Benefits—Nonspousal Joint Signer(s) (Form 15JS) identifying each joint signer.

Section 3 — Financial institution agreement

Should be completed by bank officials. Bank officials must verify all bank account information for accuracy. They must also sign and date the agreement. If you receive multiple benefit payments, indicate the specific account you wish to update. If you do not make a selection, you authorize the change to be applied to all benefit payments (excluding DROP or ILSB account withdrawals). TRSL will send you a letter confirming that the direct deposit form was processed. If you do not receive a confirmation letter, check with your bank on the first working day of the month before assuming the direct deposit form wasn't processed in time for your benefit to be sent electronically.

When will my direct deposit request take effect?

- Your first benefit payment will be sent by check through the mail. Subsequent benefits will be sent electronically to your financial institution.
- TRSL cannot guarantee that direct deposit requests received after the 15th of the month can be processed for the current month.

When are benefits posted?

- Benefit payments are made available for deposit into your checking or savings account on the first day of the month. If the first falls on a weekend or holiday (non-banking days for the Federal Reserve Bank), the direct deposit will be made available for your financial institution to post to your account on the next business day. Please contact your financial institution to find out when they will make your funds available to you.

How do I get my benefit payment stubs?

- TRSL prints direct deposit payment stubs at the establishment of direct deposit, each December, and when the net benefit changes. You can also view your monthly pay stubs online through Member Access at www.TRSL.org. If you have any questions about direct deposit, contact TRSL.
