

Important Message from TRSL

Be vigilant about your TRSL retirement information.

Get information about your retirement, specific to your TRSL record, from TRSL. That way you can be sure you're getting accurate information to make important decisions about your financial future.

TRSL has been made aware of several third-party companies that have contacted public school employees in multiple parishes with offers to discuss financial planning matters, including TRSL member retirement accounts.

While financial planners often contact school employees to discuss future retirement income, TRSL encourages you to get information about your TRSL retirement directly from TRSL to ensure its accuracy for your specific situation—even if you do use the services of a financial planner.

Additionally, please be aware that the solicitation tactics of some third-party companies seeking your business may include using web address domains that may lead to the mistaken impression you are communicating with TRSL. Here are just a few:

Important Points to Remember

- ✓ Get information about your TRSL retirement from TRSL.
- ✓ TRSL does not employ, authorize, or endorse any outside, third-party vendors to represent TRSL or provide TRSL retirement information to TRSL members.

NOTE: The only exceptions are the three Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) vendors: TIAA, VOYA, and Corebridge (formerly VALIC/AIG). TRSL contracts with these vendors to provide investment services, communication, and record keeping to employees who participate in the ORP.

- ✓ TRSL staff will never come to the home of a member or call a member unsolicited to ask for personal information.
- ✓ TRSL members should always contact TRSL directly for information about their TRSL benefits.
