A critical shortage is defined as any situation where there is a shortage of certified teachers in a certain subject area or a shortage of certified speech therapists, speech pathologists, audiologists, educational diagnosticians, school social workers, school counselors, school psychologists, interpreters, educational transliterators, or educators of the deaf or hard of hearing. La. R.S. 11:710 and La. R.S. 11:710.1 require employers to certify their critical shortage to TRSL. Employers are required to maintain proof of certification requirements, advertisements, notices, and applicant information.
