

DEEPSOUTH CENTER FOR
ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Do you have a passionate interest in environmental justice and climate change advocacy?

The Deep South Center for Environmental Justice (DSCEJ) is now accepting applications for the HBCU Environmental Justice and Climate Corps Fall Internship.

An HBCU student intern from the Metro New Orleans area will immerse themselves in a hands-on research to action project working with a partner community based organization disproportionately impacted by environmental hazards and climate change.

Research Areas

- Environmental Justice
- Climate Change
- Food Security
- Environmental Health Disparities
- Environmental Policy

The internship will:

- Develop the capacity of the HBCU student to become an active leader in community issues of environmental justice and climate change
- Provide a comprehensive community engagement plan for the transfer of knowledge to partner communities
- Facilitate the dissemination of environmental justice and climate change information within the partner communities.

Qualifications:

- Have a passionate interest in environmental justice and climate change advocacy.
- Attend a Historically Black College and University (HBCU)
- Rising undergraduate Junior or above; Graduate Student
- 3.0 GPA or above

Skills:

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Highly organized with strong attention to detail
- Ability to meet deadlines and take initiative, assist others and resolve problems
- Excellent time management and planning skills
- Must be able to attend internship in-person

How to Apply:

Apply online at <https://forms.gle/4rLRR24FDqNUJiRp8>

Compensation: $2,500

Application Deadline:
August 31, 2022

HBCU Students conducting community asset mapping with Dr. David Padgett of Tennessee State University.

Important Dates

Aug. 31, 2022 Application Deadline

Sep. 15, 2022 Internship Begins

Nov. 30, 2022 Last Day of Fall Internship

Spring 2023 Presentation of research at annual HBCU Climate Change Conference

Questions?

Mary I. Williams - maryw@dscej.org

Funded by:

LEVI STRAUSS & CO.