

Epiphany of Peace

*Created as a collective poem composed on a zoom meeting
by our Baton Rouge Peace Network 1/5/2021*

Life within God,
whispers of a silent soul.
Dead leaves and acorns
listening, sensing, releasing.

Life beyond the light
uplifted and elevated.
A pilgrim in awe of the journey God has me on harvesting inner spirit

Profoundly lonely,
rising from the ashes.
One with nature seeking solace
throughout the seasons of my life.

Nature talks to me; opens my eyes, and lifts my heart,
unspeakable stillness and beauty
Life rooted in time
yet unbound by time.

Leaves looking like teardrops,
A source of peace is always there in the natural world.
A journey into light
eternal connection with all of life.
