

JANUARY THAW

MELTING AWAY INTERFAITH MISUNDERSTANDING AND CULTIVATING PEACE

Tuesday, January 5, 2021

Virtual CONTEMPLATIVE RETREAT

Let Peace Begin with Me

8 am – 10 am – Noon – 3 pm Each session is unique

15-minute guided sessions followed by assigned readings, writings, and creative ponderings.

Leader: Rev. Robin McCullough-Bade, Executive Director, Interfaith Federation of Greater Baton Rouge

Format: Zoom webinar

Register online: ifedgbr.com No cost

Let Peace Begins with Me is more than a song. It is a call to each of us. Begin the year by setting aside a day to ponder your path of peace in 2021.

Rev. Robin McCullough-Bade will provide a series of 15-20-minute guided interfaith meditations followed by “homework” to be done in your own chosen setting. Those who are working might schedule “breaks” to listen to the guided 15-minute meditations at 8 am, 10, noon, and 3 pm.

Before the retreat, participants will be given a list of items to prepare for this virtual retreat.

Option: Conclude the day with the Peace Network. (See below)

Alone, yet not isolated.

Open, yet with a structure.

A Retreat: What a meaningful way to begin 2021!

Virtual PEACE NETWORK

Tuesday, January 5, Twelfth Night, 7 pm

Many spend their life in search of peace for themselves, others, and the world. Ponder the words of interfaith mystics and poets as we connect with others in Baton Rouge who daily choose to wage peace.

Facilitators: Rev. Charles deGravelles
