

On July 13th, the Family Action Council of Tennessee is inviting ministers of the Gospel to a free two-hour workshop to show how they can help our state legislative leaders re-establish in our law the proposition that marriage is a creational reality grounded in the distinction God made between male and female.

Leading the seminar will be Jeff Shafer, who served 16 years as legal counsel with Alliance for Defending Freedom, and David Fowler, attorney and author of the new book Recovering the Constitution.

At the workshop you will see how, since Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court has systematically eliminated from the law any given public meaning to words male and female human beings, resulting in same-sex “marriage,” biological parentage, and the transgender movement.

You will also learn about legislation to be offered in January that will take advantage of a “loophole” in the Supreme Court’s same-sex “marriage decision, Obergefell v. Hodges, that will allow ministers to solemnize a marriage without having to sign the state’s same-sex Certificate of Marriage and allow the man and woman to register, not get state permission for, their marriage. This law, if enacted, will bring the issue of marriage back before the Supreme Court.

The workshop on July 13th will allow ministers to understand what is going on when this legislation is filed in January and why it is critical that ministers be involved.

For information about or to register for the free workshop (10 a.m. Central to Noon) on July 13th, contact Gabi Henry at gabi.henry@factn.org or call 615-591-2090. The location will be at a location in the Brentwood/Franklin area just south of Nashville.