Dr. Leo D. Cyrus, Sr., Convention President

Maximum Impact is a summer enrichment camp that is aimed at young people ages 12-35 camp and is designed to help young reach their fullest potential by helping them discover, develop, and demonstrate their gifts and abilities to impact the world.

Motto “Fanning the Flames”

Camp MVP is an exciting life-changing summer camp for children ages 7-11 that aim to help students discover their purpose and develop their God-given talents and abilities that will charter their destiny for life. This journey of discovery and development will affords students with the opportunity to demonstrate their gifts and abilities in their church, their, school, and their community through service. Camp MVP will offer a curriculum that is designed to teach character building, respect, responsibility, citizenship, leadership, servanthood, and most importantly sound biblical instruction that builds their faith in God. Students who participate in Camp MVP will gain a sense of values, and will know that they our indeed our most valued players.
