Beneath every behavior is a feeling. And beneath every feeling is a need. And when we meet that need rather than focus on the behavior, we begin to deal with the cause not the symptom.

MBS has helped me grow a better relationship with God and keep it.
-Emma Lacombe

MBS is that it is a second family and home. Everyone is very close and wants to help each other. All the faculty and staff want the kids to go to them and they want to help. There is not a single teacher at the school who doesn't want each and every kid to succeed.
-Annabelle Templet

The first thing you will notice when you step foot on our campus is our beautiful courtyard. We actually had our courtyard re modeled about a year ago. Because of the benches we have in our courtyard, students are able to have class outside. Having class outside is very fun, many students enjoy the change of a learning environment as it can be difficult being cooped up in a classroom all day.
-Hannah Boudreaux

Our Ambassadors love MBS...

We have great teachers that help engage students and make learning fun. MBS really cares about their students. The school lays a foundation of faith and helps your child learn to live as Christ did.
-Ryan Verinder

We do a lot of service for food banks and things like that. We donate to the food bank, we collect shampoo for homeless shelters, we bake treats to raise money for homes for the sick, and much more.
-Aidan Medine

Our faculty and staff are very kind and loving. You can tell that they genuinely care about the students and how they feel, in addition to teaching us in many different ways and adapting to the students' needs. MBS gives you the resources you need to be successful.
-Kendyl Edwards
