Bible Study Text: Romans 12:1-3, NKJV, 1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. 3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith.

How do we Access God's Peace and Contentment?

1.Surrender Our Life - Romans 12:1, NKJV, 1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.

Question for Dialogue: What type of difference could we make in our community and in the world if every Christian did their part?

Question for Dialogue: Many people who profess Christianity have gotten distracted, and are thereby contributing to the problem in society. As a result, how can we help them to remove the distractions and totally surrender to their life's purpose in Christ?

2.Renew Our Mind - Romans 12:2, NKJV, 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Ephesians 4:22-24, NKJV, Psalms 19:14, NKJV, Proverbs 18:20-21, NKJV, Proverbs 13:2-3, NKJV,

Question For Dialogue: What are some obstacles toward renewing our minds?

3.Humble Ourselves - Romans 12:3, NKJV, 3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith.
