SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES DURING THE HOLIDAYS

All of this month I have been teaching about how we as Believers should not mess up during the holidays. There are three areas that are a struggle for Believers during this time of the year, our calories (eating), our currency (spending), and our celebrations (social events). Tonight we will conclude this series by looking at some boundaries that will help us to live victoriously during the holidays.

BOUNDARIES DURING THE HOLIDAYS

I. Boundaries For Your Calories (Eating).

- | | |
|--|-----------------------|
| 1. Eating is what caused Adam and Eve to fall. | Genesis 3:1-6 |
| 2. Eating is a part of Christian fellowship. | Acts 2:41-42 |
| 3. Eating the right food is important for good health. | Daniel 1:12-15 |

II. Boundaries For Your Currency (Spending).

- | | |
|---|-----------------------|
| 1. Make sure you know how much you can spend. | Luke 14:28-30 |
| 2. The prodigal son spent his money foolishly. | Luke 15:13-14 |
| 3. Believers should always put God first in our spending. | Malachi 3:8-10 |

III. Boundaries for Your Celebrations (Social Events).

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. As Believers our lights should always shine. | Matthew 5:14-16 |
| 2. Be careful of the crowd you hang around. | Matthew 26:69-75 |
| 3. We should glorify God in everything we do. | 1st Corinthians 10:31 |

Brothers and Sisters, if we expect to live victoriously during the holidays, we must set boundaries in every area of our lives.
