“LIVING WITH CONFIDENCE IN A CHAOTIC WORLD”

We as Believers live in a stressful, chaotic world. In the first two lessons we taught that if we intend to live with Confidence in a chaotic world, we must stay calm and we must stay challenged. In this final lesson there is a third area that must be a part of our lives to live victoriously in this stressful, chaotic world.

STAY CONSISTENT

Definition of Consistency – the act of living true to “who” you are and “what” you are regardless of what others are doing.

I. The Marks of Consistency

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. Consistently Christ-like | 1st John 2:6 |
| 2. Consistently Caring | 1st John 2:10 |
| 3. Consistently Confident | 1st John 2:14 |
| 4. Consistently Compliant | 1st John 2:17 |
| 5. Consistently Consistent | 1st John 2:24 |

II. The Motive for Consistency

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. To be ready at His coming! | 1st John 2:28 |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|

Brothers and Sisters, one of the biblical essentials for getting through stressful and chaotic times is to live a life of steadfast consistency. Not just the week leading up to Communion Sunday – but living consistently on a regular basis. (1st Corinthians 16:13)
