THE GLORY OF THE DIVINE WAY

Today's readings draw us into ageless, vibrant depths. Followers of God's law, we belong to ancient traditions. Children of God, we marvel at the freshness of creation. The Old Testament readings, from Sirach and the Psalms, celebrate the rich blessings we receive when we observe God's commands—not because we are slaves to the law, but because the law gives life in abundance. Saint Paul's Letter to the Corinthians confirms the glory of divine law, but warns that God's ways tend to be unpopular and misunderstood in this world. Paul speaks of the ancient wisdom of God, which is mysteriously both "hidden" and "revealed." God does not have secret codes that we earthly mortals cannot understand; in love, God reveals the glory of the divine way in Jesus. Saint Matthew's Gospel emphasizes the importance of living in God's law, enlivened by a deep and personal relationship with Jesus.

In Christ,

This Thursday, February 16th, begins the parish's Chaplet of Divine Mercy Novena which will continue through Lent. Along with Mass, confessions, and stations of the Cross, praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is going to be an important form of prayer where we beg for God's Mercy on us and on the whole world. This is appropriate especially in Lent because it is the season where we are preparing to celebrate the very act by which Christ offers that mercy: his passion, death and resurrection.

Each night of the novena we will begin with an opportunity for reconciliation starting at 5PM in the church. St. Faustina, who in visions of Jesus heard the message of Divine Mercy, records our Lord telling her, "Daughter, when you go to confession, to this fountain of My mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flows down upon your soul and ennobles it. Every time you go to confession, immerse yourself entirely in My mercy, with great trust, so that I may pour the bounty of My grace upon your soul. When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of mercy."

In other places Jesus refers to the sacrament of reconciliation as his "Tribunal of Mercy." He said to Faustina, "Write, speak of My mercy. Tell souls where they are to look for solace; that is, in the Tribunal of Mercy [the Sacrament of Reconciliation]. There the greatest miracles take place [and] are incessantly repeated. To avail oneself of this miracle, it is not necessary to go on a great pilgrimage or to carry out some external ceremony; it suffices to come with faith to the feet of My representative and to reveal to him one's misery, and the miracle of Divine Mercy will be fully demonstrated. Were a soul like a decaying corpse so that from a human standpoint, there would be no [hope of] restoration and everything would already be lost, it is not so with God. The miracle of Divine Mercy restores that soul in full. Oh, how miserable are those who do not take advantage of the miracle of God's mercy! You will call out in vain, but it will be too late."

Confessions will conclude at 5:50 and at 6PM we will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The homily will focus on the message of mercy each night. When Mass is concluded the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration. In her diary Faustina records Jesus saying to her, "Now you shall consider My love in the Blessed Sacrament. Here, I am entirely yours, soul, body and divinity, as your Bridegroom."

Then, kneeling before Jesus our Bridegroom, we will pray the novena prayers and sing the chaplet of Divine Mercy. This prayer was given to St. Faustina by Jesus. She writes in her diary that Jesus said to her "Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy." The Lord instructed the holy nun to tell the world about this devotion. She heard Jesus say, "My daughter, encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given to you. It pleases Me to grant everything they ask of Me by saying the chaplet. When hardened sinners say it, I will fill their souls with peace, and the hour of their death will be a happy one."

As a parish we will receive absolution in the tribunal of mercy, receive and adore the Bridegroom in the Eucharist, venerate the holy image of Divine Mercy, pray the chaplet given to St. Faustina, and offer to Jesus in the novena our own souls and those of the whole world. Join us and invite others to make this a part of their Lenten practice: February 16 and 23; March 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30; April 5 and 13. Do not squander this opportunity. Make time for Divine Mercy in your life.

Jesus, I trust in you!

Thousands sought Jesus during his life.
Only a few followed him to Calvary.

What will you do?

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life. You will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you—and grow closer to Jesus.
