

Implementation Specialist - Fall 2023

About SPED Strategies

SPED Strategies believes every student with a disability deserves access to a high quality education in an environment where they can thrive. We support leaders and educators across all levels of the education system and community by connecting the dots between policy, funding, and academics to advance outcomes for students with disabilities.

The Opportunity

Long-standing inequities have driven poor educational outcomes for students with disabilities. SPED Strategies is on a mission to change this through meaningfully designed professional learning for school systems, leaders and educators. We are seeking an Implementation Specialist to assist in executing high quality systems and structures in service of disrupting traditional approaches to professional development.

SPED Strategies has experienced rapid growth, and we are looking for someone who wants to bring their ideas, entrepreneurial spirit, and skills to our growing organization. The successful candidate for this role will have a relentless focus on improving outcomes for students with disabilities, a deep understanding of the importance of effective and efficient systems and processes to support the implementation of professional learning, and the ability to forecast challenges that may arise and propose aligned solutions in service of meeting team goals.

A SPED Strategies Implementation Specialist will:

- Enhance Professional Learning. You will conceptualize, develop and receive feedback on creative, innovative resources and aligned professional learning. To do this, you will utilize our existing catalog of professional learning offerings and enhance their impact by embedding regional context. Through research on the region you are supporting, you will propose changes and engage in iterative rounds of design by weaving together diverse stakeholder input.
- Maximize Existing Systems. You will maintain pre-established processes, tools and strategies for the development, organization and execution of projects. As you implement them, you will reflect on what is working and what can be improved to more strategically work in alignment with project and organizational goals. You will use these reflections to drive continuous iteration to maximize the systems that drive our shared work.
- Drive Cohesive and Concise Communication: You will strategically work with a Partnership Manager for your region to develop and deliver high-quality and error-free communication to the various participants as we execute our professional learning content. You will implement protocols, practices and structures that will ensure all participants feel invested, understand their role and are set up for success as it relates to participation in innovative professional learning.

What You Bring

SPED Strategies is looking for amazing people who believe in the full potential of students with disabilities, and the ability of systems to change to meet that potential. SPED Strategies may be a good fit if you are someone who is constantly learning and growing; are both comfortable with a team oriented environment and have an independent work ethic; and believe in the power of constructive collaboration to elevate our collective efforts.

A SPED Strategies Partnership Manager will be someone who can:

- Design high-impact resources: You curate just-in-time content that meets the learning needs of partners, schools, leaders and educators as they strive to provide better support to students with disabilities. You ensure learning experiences keep audiences engaged and inspired to implement changes in their practice.
- Engage in Excellent Project Management: You understand the big picture and how to strategically prioritize tasks in order to accomplish broader goals. You are able to effectively engage in multiple projects, priorities and people and communicate proactively if/when a project begins to drift off course.
- Value Continuous Growth and Feedback: You believe that feedback is a valuable tool for continuous growth, development and overall improvement. You actively work to solicit feedback from a variety of stakeholders in service of improvement. You must have proven abilities in integrating diverse stakeholder and cross-functional team feedback into a cohesive narrative.
- Embody flexibility / adaptability: You thrive in a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment that requires you to adjust quickly to changing priorities and conditions. You enjoy responding to complexity and change, and know how to use ambiguity as an opportunity for innovation and advancement. You are excited to work in a new role, and know that role will evolve over time.

Experience

SPED Strategies is seeking an Implementation Specialist with a demonstrated commitment to improving outcomes for students with disabilities. The successful candidate will have:

- Bachelor's degree required; advanced degree is a plus
- 5+ years of experience in K-12 education with time focused on special education.
- Experience in designing and/or facilitating adult professional learning within a state, district, school or other educational organization.
- Proven commitment to equity for all students, including students with disabilities
- Efficient planning skills with demonstrated ability to manage competing priorities and a dynamic schedule
- Comfort with ambiguity and complexity; ability to assess challenges, identify flexible solutions, and adapt as necessary.
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- A demonstrated commitment to working through obstacles to achieve individual and team goals and following through on all tasks, big or small

Location & Compensation

This is a full-time position located from a home office in either Nebraska or Northwest Arkansas. Travel to local state, district and school agencies is expected and a significant portion of this role. The salary range for this position is $65,000-75,000. New hires are typically brought into the organization at a salary between the range minimum and midpoint depending on experience, qualifications, and in alignment with internal equity.
