May 2024 DIRECTOR’S MESSAGE

As our cadets prepare for their upcoming PRAP visit home, we wish to express our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support and dedication to this program. We understand the significance of time spent with loved ones, and we encourage you to embrace every moment of this precious opportunity.

While enjoying this well-deserved break, it’s essential for our cadets to remain mindful of their objectives and the fundamental aspects of their training. The bonds forged within the program are invaluable, serving as pillars for personal growth and achievement. We urge our cadets to utilize this time to rejuvenate and reconnect with their families, while keeping their ambitions firmly in sight.

Your perseverance and diligence have brought you to this point, and with steadfast determination, you are capable of remarkable accomplishments. May your PRAP visit be filled with warmth, joy, and a renewed sense of purpose. We wish you all a delightful and safe reunion, surrounded by love and laughter.

MENTOR MATCH DAY

Appreciation goes out to the Mentors who joined us and actively participated in Mentor Match Day. Your dedication and support during the post-residential phase of our program are invaluable, fostering trust and confidence that our future graduates will stay steadfast on the path to success.
