HURRICANE HELENE RELIEF

Bishop Duca Announces Special Collection

Hurricane Helene inflicted devastating and long-lasting damage to the people of Florida, Georgia, the Carolinas, and Tennessee. In response, the Diocese of Baton Rouge will join with other dioceses throughout the nation to offer assistance in this time of need and to repay the generosity so frequently shown to us by our brothers and sisters now affected by this storm.

MBS will hold a special second collection the weekend of October 12th-13th for Hurricane Helene Disaster Relief. Funds will be sent directly to the Dioceses of Pensacola-Tallahassee, Charlotte, and others as needed to provide direct relief to the victims of the hurricane and to sustain the charitable and spiritual works of the Church in these areas.

The faithful can also contribute directly to Catholic Charities USA at:
<https://www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/what-we-do/disaster-relief/hurricane-helene-response> or donating through the Diocese of Baton Rouge website at:
<https://diobr.org/helene>
