HJR (House Joint Resolution) 529

Resolution supporting challenge to Obergefell

Resolution that affirms the legal principles underlying the state court lawsuits FACT has filed relative to the U.S. Supreme Court's Obergefell v. Hodges decision. Passed the Senate 26-2 and the House 73-18. Signed by Gov. Haslam.

HJR (House Joint Resolution) 528

Resolution urging Congress to protect state's rights

Resolution that recognizes Tennessee's rights under the 10th Amendment and urges Congress to return the definition of marriage back to the states and take steps to restrain the federal judiciary. Passed the Senate 24-1 and the House 75-19. Signed by Gov. Haslam.

SB 2387/HB 2414

Bathroom privacy bill

Requires students in public schools and colleges to use the restroom and locker room facilities of the sex listed on their birth certificate, and allows for schools to make appropriate accommodations for any student who does not want to use the facilities corresponding to their birth sex.

Motion to reconsider bathroom bill – The bill was sent to a summer study committee, which would have effectively killed it. A motion was then made to “reconsider” the bill to hear it again and vote on it.

2nd motion to refer to summer study – Once the bill was effectively reconsidered, another motion was made to send it to summer study, which would have killed it.

Passed the Senate and House Education Committees. Sponsor Rep. Susan Lynn decided not to pursue the bill further prior to a vote by the House Finance Committee.

SB 1556/HB 1840

Protects counselors' rights of conscience to make referrals

This bill restores to professional counselors the right to refer clients to another professional if helping the client achieve his or her therapeutic goals or objectives would cause the counselor to violate his or her own sincerely held principles. Passed the Senate 27-5 and the House 68-22. Signed into law by Gov. Haslam.

SB 999/HB 1049

Enacts Opportunity Scholarship program

This bill provides scholarships (vouchers) for a limited number of students to attend private schools if they are zoned to attend schools ranked in the bottom five percent. The bill passed the Senate 23-9 with 1 abstention. The House Sponsor did not push for a vote on the House floor, because it did not appear that there were enough votes to pass the bill.
